THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

The Girls' Loyalty society of the South Scranton branch of the Young Women's Christian association held their regular monthly business meeting Friday evening at the association rooms, Cedar avenue. Miss Kate Lewert presided and the usual Bible lesson was read and discussed. The members of St. John's Total Abtinence society were treated to an enjoyable affair Saturday evening, at St. John's hall by the officers of the society. A short literary and musical pro gramme was carried out and refreshments and cigars were provided.

Martin Wade, of Ecech street, royally entertained many of his friends at his home Thursday evening. In addition to the other usual amusements, a mock trial was carried out with considerable fun. Breach of promise was the charge and many an original thought was evolved during the trial's progress. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Wade, assisted by several of the young ladies.

MINOOKA.

The literary circle of the O'Connell ouncil, Young Men's Institute, conducted an interesting meeting at their rooms in the Father Mathew hall yesterday. The feature of the meet was a spirited debate on the following subject: "Resolved, That the liquor traffic should be abolished." After a lengthy argument the affirmative was awarded the decision. P. J. Quinn, candidate for a return engagement with the much-coveted plum, the supervisorship, is wearing a worried look. Evidently he anticipates the avalanche of defeat that is liable to send him to political oblivion

Three Runaways on Main Avenue Caused a Good Deal of Excitement,

VERY LITTLE DAMAGE WAS DONE

Funeral of Edward D. Price Was Largely Attended from His Late Home on Price Street Saturday Afternoon -- Plenty of Material for a Camera Club in This Part of the City -- Christian Endeavor Anniversary -- News Notes and Personals.

What might have been a serious accident and which culminated in a runoccurred yesterday away about 2.15 o'clock on South Main avenue, near public school No. 32. Car No. 143, of the Scranton Railway company, was coming down the slight grade at this point and met a horse young lady and gentleman occupied the cutter and the driver turned his horse sic for the occasion. slightly to the right. His horse was a mettlesome animal and in prancing about, managed to throw both parties out. He then dashed off with the nervy driver clinging to the reins. After being dragged about half a block, the young man was compelled to relinquish his hold and the horse continued unrestrained its mad flight towards Taylor. Neither was injured beyond the fright and shaking up, and they went into a nearby residence to brush the snow and mud from their apparel.

Dr. F. C. Hall, of North Main avenue, and his driver were precipitated into the street from their cutter Saturday morning while turning the corner from Main avenue onto Jackson street. The team, which is a spirited one, turned rather quickly and upset the cutter. The sudden jerk on the reins brought them back to the left and off they went down Main avenue, leaving occupants lying on the ground, Neither gentleman was hurt and the driver set off after his team. They did not go far. A bystander captured them and turned them over to their driver. The spirit of running away was contagious, however, for a horse attached to a light spring wagon, stood untied just below Jackson street on Main avenue an he, too, started off, but was caught at Division street, after colliding with a telegraph pole. But little damage to the vehicle was done.

C. E. ANNIVERSARY.

Yesterday was the seventeenth anpiversary of the organization of the great Christian Endeavor society and the event was appropriately observed last evening at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church by the Endeavor societies of the church. It was also the rinth anniversary of the organization of the senior society of the church, which increased the interest in the ser-

The services were arraigned by the Senior society and the Intermediate and Juniors assisted in carrying them The services were held in lieu of the regular evening service of the church, and W. T. Burall, retiring president of the Seniors, presided. The attendance was large and the exerciswere opened by singing a hymn. Rev. J. P. Moftatt, pastor of the church, read the scriptural lesson. Another hymn was sung and a collection was taken which will be distributed evenly between the Home and Foreign Misons fund.

The retiring president, W. T. Burall, then gave a short address upon the W. Gloor and G. Higgins. society in general and the Washburn et church society in special. His address was in the nature of a summary of the work accomplished and intentions for the future. After the singing of another hymn, Miss Kate Chase, president of the Intermediate society, spoke upon the work of this society, Miss Wathryn Paine, president of the Juniors, spoke upon the Junior society. Both talks were well given by the young misses and indiented their deep interest in the work of the societies of which they had

FUNERAL OF EDWARD D. PRICE. The funeral services of the late Edward D. Price were held Saturday afternoon from the residence, 1713 Price street, and were attended by a large occourse of relatives and friends, intuding representations from the Capouse Mine Accidental fund and Hyde Park lodge, No. 306, Knights of Pythias, The services were in charge of Rev. H. H. Harris, D. D., of Taylor, and Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church. Both divines spoke of the many praiseworthy traits which had endeared the deceased o his friends during his life. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. At the conclusion of the services, the emains were viewed, and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where they were laid at rest with the usual burial services of the Baptist faith. A large cortege accompanied the remains o the cemetery. The pall-bearers were William C. Davis, Charles Watkins and Robert Edwards, of the lodge, and David Morgan, William Pethrick and John Lewis, of the fund.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The committee of arrangements of St. Brenden's council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute, are very busy preparing for the social which the council intend holding Friday evening, Feb. 11. at Mears hall. Their desire is to eclipse any previous social held by this progressive council and they no doubt will accomplish their efforts, rence's orchestra will furnish the mu-

The revival services which have been conducted each evening during the past two weeks at the Simpson and Hampton Street Methodist church, on this side, will be continued throughout this week. This decision was reached on account of the great interest displayed and the success attending the efforts thus far. The pastors of both churches, assisted by the several societies of each church, and in some instances by outside ministers and speakers, have reason to feel pleased with the work done.

The Scranton Street Baptist church has just passed through two weeks of earnest revival work and great good has been accomplished. The church societies have ably seconded the efforts of the pastor, Rev. S. F. Matthews, in his efforts to further the cause of the great Master.

Do not forget the entertainment to be given this evening at Mears' hall, under the auspices of three of the classes of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church Sabbath school. There will be an excellent literary and musical programme rendered and an interesting exhibition with Edison's famous Electromotiscope, in charge of William H. Pearce. The classes are raising funds towards their share of the church debt.

The Elite Dancing class, of which Prof. George Taylor is instructor, will not meet in usual session this evening at Mears' hall, owing to the occupancy of the hall for an entertainment. Th class will, however, meet as usual Monday evening, Feb. 7.

There was a large gathering of home w friends Friday evening at the residence tention. of Mrs. Caroline Miles, 1822 Price street, to fittingly observe the anniversary of her birthday. The evening was passed In the usual customary manner, and at a seasonable hour dainty refreshments were served. The hostess was a recipient of many tokens of esteem from her well-wishing guests. Those who were present upon this hospitable occasion were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Miles, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ackerson, Mr. and Mrs. F. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Freas, 17 years of age, son of W. B. Freas, the flour merchant, lay unconscious for a long time as a result of injuries received in a runaway accident late Sarurday night on East Market street, Green Ridge. At the corner of Sanderson avenue Freas was thrown out and his head was injured. Dr. Thompson was summoned to attend the young man. Yesterday he was comparatively well, some scale wounds being the only evidence of hisexperience. A disastrous runaway was averted Saturday morning by William Eldridge permanent man of the Niagara Hose company, who, at the risk of his life, stopped a spirited team belonging to a farmer, who became frightened by the overturning of a heavily laden sled while turning the corner of West Market street and Main avenue. A youth, whose name could not be learned, had a miraculous escape from death Saturday afternoon on West Market street. He was riding on a bob sled and was in some manner thrown off and precipitated underneath a large coal wagon. The driver of the vehicle witnessed the mishap and at once brought the team to a standstill, but none too soon, as the wheels were within an inch of the boy's head. To have run over the boy would have been fatal, as there were two tons of coal in the wagon.
